Pastor Ray will be preaching on the scripture listed in bold on each Sunday.

Mary Clow, our Clerk of Session, had a very good idea, and almost every one of you agreed. She thought it would be fun to make contact with as many of you as possible and find out what you are doing to pass the time during this pandemic. Please find below those comments. It was fun talking with you all.

Dale and Carla Ashmore: They both have health concerns so they are definitely staying in. Mr. Ashmore is enjoying his reading and Mrs. Ashmore is enjoying games. Please keep their daughter, who is a nurse, in your prayers.

Ron and Mary Clow: Mary has been doing more cooking at home using old and new recipes. Ron's ebay business is going strong. They are enjoying the spring weather and look forward to more time outdoors. They are recording movies, reading and walking.

Doris Gerber: She can always find something to do. She has a large collection of magazines she enjoys going through, listening to music, treatments on back, getting tacos for herself and Steve, and talking with Kathy who calls her everyday.

Phil and Jean Noellsch: Life is pretty much as usual. Jean is making greeting cards, Phil is doing tax work, watching tv, cleaning Phil's office, picking up mail at FPC, and cooking more.

John and Barb Kirkpatrick: John and Barb are still working and staying at home when they are not at work.

Mac and Ruth McClure: They are staying home and their sons help them with groceries and other errands.

Gene and Mary Jane Roth: Reading and Netflix (a gift they received for Christmas and finally have time to do something with)

David and Ellie Stolz: They walk for an hour every day the weather cooperates. Their family and church friends have given them 16 books to read. She is having to clean her own house because cleaning lady can't come in now. Doing some baking and word hunts. Just enjoying life.

Meladee Ferguson: I take the Red Book and pray for every one listed each day, doing lots of praying each day. I have been working on greeting cards, trying to read my Bible more, playing word games on my tablet, emailing, texting, and phoning friends and family. And, very important, I take a nap every so often.

Ray and Trudy Lantz: Ray has been preparing on line services, learning new tools with which to do this, and praying a lot. Trudy is doing a lot more cooking, she has worked some at the store, hopes to get her bathroom painted, watching Hallmark movies, and doing little projects like laundry!

Val Hunt: Val is locked in at Holly Brook, but does take walks in the court yard, must enjoy her meals in her room, and is worrying about prisoners as she can now relate more to their lifestyle. She would like for me to pass on the following: Every Friday at 4:00 p.m. several of the residents stand in their doorways and recite the Lord's Prayer. She would invite you to recite it wherever you are at 4 on Fridays. You won't be able to hear each other, But our Lord and Risen Savior will be able to hear each and every one of us.

Danny and Vonna Heustis: They are watching tv, picking up breakfast and lunch from senior meals at cafe, and they go for a ride in the country. Danny is the mayor of Saybrook so he is busy keeping up with trouble-shooting for them.

Rick, Aizza, Annaliese, Addison, and Charlie Kerchenfaut: Finished game of Monopoly that they started 3 years ago. Each time they take a trip they take the game, play for a couple of hours, write down on a piece of paper who has which properties, houses, how much money, etc. and the next time they go they take the game and start from there. Now, it's done! The kids are spending a lot of time out of doors tarket shooting and trapping and keeping active. They are helping dad on the property, also with making appraisals. Annaliese has a friend in Germany and they are working on each other's language. Addison has a hard puzzle about half way through. Charlie is working in the kitchen learning to cook with Aizza. They fight over is going to do laundry, but, lucky Aizza wins most of the time. They have started an exercise program together, watch church services together, and each child does something with a parent to learn something new. Annaliese has learned to knit and has knitted a scarf for each of her friends.

Tim, Janice, Noah, Jesse, and Emma Swanson: They spend time outside when the weather permits. They enjoy doing puzzles. Tim, Noah, and Jesse work each day. Emma is doing school work on line or from teacher's emails. They watch tv and take the dog for a walk.

Jean Williams: She has finally eaten all the Easter candy (it's a dirty job, but someone had to it). Thanks, Jean. She is enjoying yard work, and watching tv. She hopes to get her windows washed. She is reading the new testament.

Barb Williams: She has not really wanted to go out. She has begun cleaning out drawers. She is mainly doing light cleaning and laundry. She does have a young girl who helps her with groceries and taking out the garbage.

Ted Swanson: Ted is staying home enjoying his Sudoku books and cooking and spending time outside. His sister, Nan is there with him and she has been doing a lot of good cooking.

Charles and Cheryl Schultz: Charlie is working from home and Cheryl is still babysitting for one family.
